We are now ready for the third issue of Emerging Materials Research in 2021. We have recently received a huge number of submissions and thus the rejection rate is sharply increased. This allows us to select more quality papers to be published in EMR and thus this will lead to an increased Impact Factor in the future. There are 12 valuable papers for our readers in this issue and I am sure that these will make a significant contribution to the field of materials research.

I extend my gratitude to the authors, reviewers, related members of the Editorial Board and Editorial staff for their contributions and making the publication of this issue possible.
